This exclusion list only contains the direct exclusions from the investment universe. These are securities with “non-adapting”, “harmful” or “international standards” status. Cardano applies additional exclusions on sustainability grounds for specific investment strategies. For example, Cardano’s sustainable fund range does not allow investments in companies with at-risk classification. More information on how the Cardano Sustainable Investment Framework and company classifications to construct portfolios can be found in Cardano’s Sustainability Policy (<https://www.cardano.nl/duurzaamheid-policies-disclosures/>).”*
